

XVII. Time Management – Last Minute

You tend to complete tasks close to deadlines, often working under pressure. While this can bring bursts of focus, building a routine can help reduce stress and improve consistency.

XVIII. Time Management – Organized

You plan your time well and manage tasks in a structured way. This habit keeps you on track and supports success in both academic and extracurricular activities.

